Numb. 7674.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 7. to Saturday February 11. 1737.

Copenhagen, February 11, N. S.

ON the 3d Instant the Council was held, and there was a full Court at Fridericksberg. The King of Denmark being pretty well recovered of his Indisposition, came as usual into the Circle; and his Majesty dined afterwards in publick. General Sculemberg, who designed to have set out upon his Return to Paris before the End of last Month, is not gone yet. The Regiment of Cuirassiers, made vacant by the Promotion of Colonel Kalkreuter to the Post of Master of the Horse, is given to the Prince of Wirtemberg-Oels, who is now in Germany.

Hague, Feb. 18, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland continue their Assembly, not having yet settled their Domestick Affairs that relate to the Estimate of War for the current Year presented to them by the Council of State, to which they have not yet given their Consent. We have an Account from the Court of Petersbourg, that the new Grand Vizier at Constantinople has been deposed, and the Caimacan of that City put into his Room, and that the latter is not judged equal to that Employment. Great Preparations of all Sorts are making by the Russians during the Winter, in order to an early Campaign in the Spring, unless the Turks prevent it by some Propositions of Peace that may be judged acceptable.

Whitehall, Feb, 4, 1737-8.

Whereas on the First Day of this Instant February, several scandalous, seditious, and treasonable Papers, were found posted up in different Places in the Town of Leicester: His Majesty is pleased, for the better Discovery of the Authors and Dispersers of the said wicked and treasonable Papers, or any Persons concerned therein, to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person that shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one of the Offenders; or in Case there shall be more than one Person discovered and convicted, His Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds for every one of the said Criminals, to be paid upon the Conviction of them, or any of them.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Whitehall, February 10, 1737-8.

Whereas two anonymous Letters were sent to John Berington, Esq; in March 1736 7, threatning to burn his Houses, Barns and Stables, &c. if he did not lay certain Sums of Money in the Places therein described; and another Letter, dated January 9, 1737, was sent by the Post, directed to Mr. Beninton, at his House at Beenham near Kiff in Berkshire, forthwith, threatning, that every thing he had should be burned, in case he did not get William Barnart out of Goal, who had been committed on Suspicion of being concerned in writing and sending the Letters above-mentioned. And whereas a Letter dated April 23, 1737, and directed to the Rev. Mr. Deen, living at Woolhamton, Berks, was found in Kiff-Green on the 25th of the said Month, threatning the Life of the said Mr. Deen, in case he did not send Forty Pounds to a Place therein described: His Majesty, for the better discovering the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letters, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except John Wingfield, now a Prisoner in Reading Goal, who is suspected to have been concerned therein) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

John Berington.

Whitehall, January 31, 1737-8.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a Merchant Ship called the Britannia, was, between the 23d and 24th Days of December last past, stranded at Malcombe in the Port of Plymouth and County of Devon, and plundered and robbed of divers Goods and Effects: and that a threatening Letter has been lately thrown into the Yard of John Pollexfen, Esq; at Mothecombe, in the said County, which said John Pollexfen has been aiding and assisting in procuring Satisfaction to the Owners of the said Ship and Goods, and which said Letter is supposed to have been contrived and written by one or more of the Persons concerned in the said Robbery and Plunder: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing or sending the said threatening Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, in writing, sending, or leaving the said incendiary Letter, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And, as a further Encouragement, Henry Marg[illegible] dwelling in St. Augustine Fryars, in the City of London, Merchant, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to the Person or Persons who shall discover and or more of his Accomplices in writing and ſending the ſaid threatening Letter, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the ſaid Criminals.

Henry March.
